WYOMING PEACH FESTIVAL MINUTES April 16, 2013

1. Jaci Stokes called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m.
2. The Agenda was accepted as submitted.
3. Previous minutes are in the packets
4. Treasurer's Report: The checking account has a $10.00 balance; the savings balance is $1,395.00. Jaci has not deposited any money yet from reservations.
5. Committees:
 - Publicity: Michelle will continue to handle this.
 - Crafters & Vendors: Jaci has 22 reservations so far. Devon Coventry got all the forms stuffed and ready to mail. They were stamped in Town Hall and Lew got them to the post office.
 - Entertainment: Joanne Everett
 - Joanne got a list of entertainers from the public library.
 - Rolling Thunder will definitely be coming.
 - Mike Quinn wants us to consider the Oil City Ramblers – they want $300.00 for 1 hour.
 - Rick Hudson is coming for $125.00.
 - Jack Foraker is coming for $325.00 and will take the 12:00 slot.
 - Signs, busses & parking – Jaci is getting the map that Del-DOT sent us of the detour enlarged so that it is more easily viewed.
 - Flyers – Programs – Lisa – not started yet
 - Resale - Janet said that Dot has all the cookbooks and can copy them. Janet will bind them.
 - Peach Dessert Contest – Dot and Janet – not started yet
 - Volunteers – Info Booth – Joanne – she will start calling in May.
 - Parade – Jim and Donna Mason were not at the meeting.
 - Police and Fire Police – Chief Willey will handle this.
 - Bicycle Paramedics – Joanne has the EMS coming again.
6. Old Business:
 - Jaci talked to Martin about the Moose Lodge wanting to do fingerprinting for the children and he said “no”

- There was some discussion on politicians. This year the applications say there will be a $35.00 charge so we will have to go with that. Walkers should have to pay the same as those with spaces. Maybe we could get them to give a donation instead. Next year we may change to donations for all politicians.

7. New Business:

- Michelle is going to contact Chic-Fil-A about doing a fund raiser through them.
- Lisa suggested bringing tables up from the park to sit in front of the train platform during the festival. Lew can do that gradually the week before the festival.
- Michelle knows a young man who came to the meeting with his friend and they played acoustic guitar and sang for us. They would like to play during the festival. Their names are Dane Melvin and Adam Carroll. We will definitely find a place for them. Mike Marasco suggested his pavilion next to the ice cream stand. Everyone felt that was a great idea since there is no other entertainment at that end of Railroad Avenue.
