

My name is Terry B. Witt. I was born and raised in Wyoming, DE and have lived here all of my life. I graduated in 1971 From Caesar Rodney High School. During my youth I was fortunate enough to obtain a job at Frank's Market which was located on Camden Wyoming Avenue in Wyoming, DE. In 1975, I bought Frank's Market from Mr. Frank Matthews and changed the name to Witt Brothers Market. My wife Terrie and I have two children, Justin 28 years of age, who practices law in Altoona, Pennsylvania; and Laura, 22 years of age, who will graduate from college in May 2014.

Owning and operating my business has kept me busy for many years; but I still want to experience public service. In 2010 I was elected to a seat on Wyoming Town Council and have been proudly serving ever since.

Two years ago a medical procedure left me unable to work in my store. I needed to find something constructive I could do for my community. With the opportunity to contribute to the town I grew up in, I decided to run again for town council re-election. I have the prospective of both the private citizen and business owner and the understanding of the importance of being frugal with the town budget.

If re-elected, I will always consider the tax-paying citizens who elected me when making any decisions.

Thank you for your support.
