- The seal of the Town of Wyoming, Delaware, is a circular emblem. It features a yellow outer ring with the words "TOWN OF WYOMING" at the top and "DELAWARE" at the bottom. The center of the seal depicts a red brick building, likely a school or town hall, with a white roof and a chimney. In front of the building is a green lawn with several colorful balloons (orange, yellow, green, and blue). The entire scene is set against a blue background.
